Important Announcement

The next session in this legislative term will be starting soon and I am looking forward to getting back to work at the Capitol. I have been largely "out of the loop" due to difficult circumstances in our family that have dominated the past 5 months or so. Just to recap, my Daughter (age 41) died suddenly and unexpectedly at the beginning of the summer, leaving her husband and 4 children (ages 15 to 7). Carole's father (from SE Missouri) also died a short time later. Both of these events seriously changed our schedules. Then, throw in hip replacement surgery (six weeks ago) for good measure, and that pretty much summarizes our Summer and Fall.

The Announcement

Carole and I have 13 grandchildren and we love them all dearly, however, four of them don't have their mother with them now and we see a need to be near them and be more a part of their lives. My wife Carole has been driving 3-1/2 hours to Algona, Iowa each week to do home schooling, help with the children's other activities and take care of lots of household responsibilities. Carole comes home on the weekends and I travel there as much as possible . As a result of these circumstances, we have decided that moving to Algona is the right thing for us to do when this legislative term is over. I am very grateful to the people of House District 91 for electing me to represent them at the State House in Des Moines. I was hoping to represent this district for another term, but since we will be living in a different district, someone else will be running for my seat in the 2024 election.

Judd Lawler

On that note, I would like to introduce you to Judd Lawler. Judd will be running for my seat in the Iowa House of Representatives in 2024. I have known Judd and his family for nearly 40 years and, without hesitation, I enthusiastically endorse him! Judd is a man of faith and a life-long conservative. He has a very impressive resume, yet he is a humble man with a sincere desire to serve. The State House in Des Moines needs people like Judd Lawler and Iowa will be a better place because of him. I hope you will join me in supporting Judd Lawler as the next State Representative for District 91 and vote for him in the Iowa Primary on June 4th. Please visit Judd's website (JuddLawler.com) to learn more about him and his qualifications.

It's Not Over Yet

As I mentioned above, I will be completing my term and I will continue to be a voice for moral, spiritual, and constitutional principles at the State House. Our nation is on the brink of destruction and we need strong state legislatures that will think and act outside of the status quo. Much of the action that is needed seems radical but that is only because we have drifted so far from our moral and spiritual foundations. Sadly, following the principles found in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution seems extreme to many because of the "woke" culture that has infected our nation. I don't know what the future may hold for me in the political arena after this term, but I can assure you, I will continue to be involved at some level working to the best of my ability to bring reformation to our state and our nation.

With best regards,

Brad Sherman

Iowa State Representative for District 91
